Warm welcome to new staff.

Abeer Dagestani, an Iraqi national, is the new country relations officer for MENA. Prior to joining the GEF, Abeer worked as a consultant for the World Bank, CIDA, DIFD and USAID. She was in charge of several funding portfolios in the MENA region, including the Canadian Human Rights Fund for Iraq, and the Gulf Cooperation's Countries, Yemen and Iraq grants portfolio for the 'Foundation for the Future'.

In her previous jobs, she effectively contributed to addressing the pressing issues of shared river basins, desertification, the rights of indigenous communities and incorporated a gender sensitive approach to development and environmental programs/projects.

Abeer holds two Master degrees; one in International Development Policy from Duke University and another in Translations from her home country. Before 2003, she was member of the academia in Iraq, where she taught at Baghdad University.

Thank you for welcoming Abeer warmly aboard GEF.
